2 Sixth Amendment Violations (Dkt. 86) nor have I received or seen any Motion for 3 Default from Plaintiff.

4 4. I have spoken with counsel for the City of Seattle Defendants regarding my motion to 6 Counsel indicated that she had no objection to my motion to seal.

7 5. I learned on Monday August 14, 2017, that Mr. Canty had been transferred into the 12 7. On August 16, 2017, I sent Mr. Canty a letter requesting he call me to engage in a 13 conference regarding my proposed motion to seal and also requesting updated contact 14 information from him to use upon his release from prison. I have been unable to have 15 a conference with Mr. Canty regarding my motion to seal because of his custodial
